MEDICINAL.

A Fine Baby

Makes any mother proud. There are a great many proud mothers whose children have been puny and sickly until they began the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. That medicine which "makes weak women strong" has given them the strength to bear hearty, and healthy children for the first time.

"Six years ago after the birth of one of my children I was left in a weak run down condition," says Maria O. Maynard, writing from Brookland, D. C. "My health seemed utterly gone. I suffered from nervousness, female weakness and rheumatism. Life was a burden. I doctor and tried several patent medicines, all with the same result. I began to get worse and to add to the complications I suffered terribly from constipation. I chanced to see one of your advertisements and I commenced to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Pleasant Pellets and began to improve right away, and continued improving and putting in strength. I cannot express the relief it was so great. Seven months later my little daughter was born without much trouble. I feel that I would never have been able to endure my confinement only by the help due solely to Dr. Pierce's medicine. She was a fine healthy child and the only one I have ever been able to nurse. She is now two years old and I have never had to take any medicine since, so I feel that your medicine has made a lasting cure with me."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to defray expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper binding, or 31 stamps for cloth. Address Dr. K. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

HAD TO KILL THE LIONESS.

Eva, the lioness with Sig. Santelle's circus, which escaped and made matters lively in the lower part of Bridgeport, Conn., for a few hours Wednesday morning until she was captured, is dead. The excitement of Eva's few hours of liberty in that city and the intense heat were too much for her and her mind weakened and she became deranged. On the way to Ansonia she attacked Miss Olga Reed, an equestrienne, to whom she had always been friendly. Killing the lioness was the only way of curing her, so the death took place.

Eva was restless after her escape in Bridgeport. She had never known liberty before, having been born in captivity and always kept in it. The brief spell of freedom turned her mind. She paced up and down her cage occasionally growling and snarling through the bars. Her keeper could not persuade her to be still. It was not until the show was well on the road to Ansonia that she became quiet. Miss Reed, who is a granddaughter of Dan Rice, the famous old circusman, was a favorite of Eva.

The young woman is not a professional lion tamer, but she knows the art of handling the wild animals. It was her daily custom to pet the big cat, as she called Eva, and when the circus procession stopped on the road to rest she decided to pay a visit to the lioness and coax her back into good humor. Eva, at first, seemed pleased to see the young woman. Fearing no danger, Miss Reed put her hand between the bars to stroke the animal's back. She had done so many times before, but Thursday Miss Reed's hand had just touched the animal when it gave a snarl and a snap and its jaws held the young woman's wrist in a vice-like clutch.

Miss Reed, thoroughly frightened, gave a scream and a whole bevy of the circus people rushed to the lioness's cage. Eva was firm in her grip, but she was careful not to tear the young woman's arm.

The trainer observed this and feared to beat off Eva, lest she would do Miss Reed considerable injury. It was only after a good deal of coaxing and by drawing the lioness's attention to raw meat, that she was induced to relax her hold.

Meanwhile Miss Reed was greatly frightened. The pain of the squeezing was terrible and the thought of the lioness tearing off her hand almost prostrated her. Signor Santelle, the trainer, and other animal men with the circus saw from the bloodshot condition of Eva's eyes and her restlessness that she was a victim of the heat. A dose of chloroform was given her to quiet her and then enough was administered to terminate her life. It is rare that a lioness is in that condition, but when one is, killing is the only cure. Sig. Santelle will have Eva's skin stuffed and mounted.

The Best Remedy for Stomach and Bowel Troubles.

"I have been in the drug business for twenty years and have sold most of all the proprietary medicines of any note. Among the entire list I have never found anything to equal Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for all stomach and bowel troubles," says O. W. Wakefield, of Columbus, Ga. "This remedy cured two severe cases of cholera morbus in my family and I have recommended and sold hundreds of bottles of it to my customers for their entire satisfaction. It affords a quick and sure cure in a pleasant form. No family should be without it. I keep it in my house at all times." For sale by Richard Gibson.

Kodol

Dyspepsia Cure

Digests what you eat.

We would like to call your attention to the following letter:

Dear Sirs:—I have been suffering from dyspepsia for 21 years. Whenever I would take a strong diet I would bloat up in the stomach. I would suffer great pains in the head and stomach and would be obliged to take to my bed and remain sometimes for a day and night. Nothing I took did me any good until last winter, when some one advised my husband to get for me a bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which he did. I used several bottles of it and I am happy to say I can eat any kind of strong diet I please. I can sleep well at night and I feel like another person altogether. I cannot give Kodol Dyspepsia Cure too much praise, and I will highly recommend it to all sufferers of dyspepsia.—Mrs. Peter Kline, Hopewell, Pa.

It can't help but do you good

There is a very simple reason why Kodol Dyspepsia Cure invariably cures the worst cases of indigestion even after everything else fails, and that is because it is the only preparation known that contains all the digestants and completely digests what you eat.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

Prepared only by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

Each bottle contains 24 times the 50c. size.
